Nyasaland: British Central Africa

1896 £25 black and green, used with Blantyre cds 8th March 1898. A possible repaired horizontal tear above 'TWE', nevertheless a splendid example of what purports to be a rarity: due to the clear appearance of a sideways crown this is presumably the watermarked issue, SG.42, unpriced as used (£30,000 for mint). An exciting stamp, with great potential once expertized.

A Large and Reasonably Advanced Collection of the City of York Held in Ten Albums and Collected by a York Historian.

There are probably between 4000 and 5000 cards / images in the albums. The ten albums are being sold together and each one represents a different part or facet of the city. These include The Suburbs, The Defenses, Heraldic / Novelty, Buildings, Other Buildings – Schools and Colleges, Streets (City Centre), Military / Comic, York Events, Minister Exterior, Minister Interior etc. Much of the value is in two of the albums, the Suburbs and Events album, although there are many copy photos in the latter album. When it comes to the Minster both albums resemble a glorified 20p box of cards, similarly the Defenses; 600 cards of Warmgate, Micklegate, Monk Bay and Bootham Bar are also common along with at least 140 vertical cards of The Shambles with another three dozen horizontal views, Of these there may be a few rarer Walter Scott views, the odd Doncaster publisher and the odd W. Hayes card but they are few and far between. The Events album needs careful consideration as after the 104 York Pageant cards and Mystery Plays from the 1960s and 1971 Festival (28) is a range of earlier events such as York Gala and Balloon (30) and Military Sunday (26) along with Funeral, Royal Visits Decorated streets etc. Many are Postcards but perhaps as many as half on some pages are copy photographs so please examine carefully. Viewing is essential on this lot to ascertain its value to you. Along with the collection is the original owners lists and a Walter Scott York sample book (unfortunately some views missing) and a Valentines advertising shop window display of York cards.

£2,000-3,000
